In-House Workshops

Is Your Business Financially Fit?

Tax season may be over, but start to prepare yourself now so that next year is not such a headache! Understanding your financial statements is more than just numbers: you need to fit your numbers with your business vision!

Attending this workshop will help you to:

- Know the meaning of key financial terms
- Establish meaningful benchmarks
- Learn what should you be monitoring, and why
- Understand the value of a financial forecast
- Find out the true cost of debit and credit cards
- Understand your overhead costs...and more!

Financial trainer and business plan consultant Cliff Bilyea will walk you through the paperwork and help to de-mystify those reports and numbers. Particularly useful for new business owners, entrepreneurs and start-ups!
